

A Message from Tim

"An Ash Valentine"

Ash Wednesday, the beginning of Lent, falls on Valentine's Day this year. How appropriate. That we should place ashes on our heads and humbly remember our mortality on a day remembering St. Valentine is fitting. Though little is known of Valentine, the earliest report of his life from the Nuremberg Chronicle tells us he was a priest martyred for his faith. His crime was marrying Christian couples and aiding Christian families who had been persecuted. In his own persecution, he tried to convert Emperor Claudius II and was ordered to be beaten with clubs and beheaded.

A tragic ending for a faithful servant. Perhaps more tragic is that we have forgotten Valentine's dedication and faith.

We celebrate romantic love on the 14th because of Valentine's decision against the Emperor's edict to marry Christian couples. Yet, we forget the price he paid for his decision.

It is good that Ash Wednesday coincides with Valentine's Day. More fitting than receiving a card with Cupid is receiving the ashes of repentance on the forehead.

Jesus said, "Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:13.

Instead of giving up something for Lent, let us dedicate this Lent to developing a greater love, a love that is willing to give unto death; a love that is sacrificial; a love that is eternal, found in God's own love for us all; a love that humbly remembers our own mortality and our need for repentance.

A love like Valentine's, whose love for God and his brothers and sisters in Christ cost him everything.

Lent Begins: Ash Wednesday Worship: February 14 at 6:30 p.m.

Lent begins, as always, with our Ash Wednesday worship. This year, Ash Wednesday is February 14. GUMC's service will be at 6:30 p.m. During Lent, many of the faithful give up certain foods or behaviors to help them focus on spiritual health and growth. Some foods given up are chocolate, meat, rich desserts, soda, coffee, alcohol, and the like. Some behaviors given up are TV sports, gossip, eating out for lunch, and such. Others of the faith take on certain behaviors for the same reason. These people may spend extra time in daily devotional reading and prayer, additional financial giving above a tithe, extra physical exercise, and such. The point of all of these disciplines is a deeper spiritual awareness, an increased maturity in the faith, and a closer walk with Jesus. Though Ash Wednesday falls on a traditional day for lovers, this year, remember the One who loves us most of all, Whose love never fails, and meet us in the sanctuary Wednesday, February 14 at 6:30 p.m.

GUMW February Luncheon

Tuesday, February 13, 2018

11:30 a.m.

Mike Wilson Fellowship Hall

"Whoever brings blessings will be enriched, and one who waters will himself be watered." – Proverbs 11:25

Please join us for a catered lunch, fellowship, and an inspirational message from our own GUMC member, Alise Davis, at our February Luncheon on February 13, 2018, at 11:30 a.m., in the Mike Wilson Fellowship Hall. Alise not only serves as champion and cheerleader for Room In The Inn, but she is also Secretary on the Board of Directors, Site Coordinator, Liaison with The Cottage's partnering congregations, and Fundraising Coordinator.

Alise's involvement with Room In The Inn began in 2013, and she has become a vital part of this homeless ministry. Room In The Inn provides emergency shelter and meals to some of the more than 2,000 Memphians faced with homelessness during the coldest months of the year – November through March. Volunteers and faith communities such as GUMC provide a safe haven including warmth, hospitality, food, kindness and respect.

Alise and her husband Scott have three wonderfully active children. Stepping away from a career in finance after the birth of her first child, Alise has devoted herself to her family, volunteer work, and selflessness. She fills her days raising her children, working with the GUMC Youth, participating in the Emmanuel Sunday School class, and being active in the Grace Women's Circle. She is also heavily involved in her children's school lives by fulfilling the roles of Parent Ambassador and Parent Teacher Fellowship Vice President at Evangelical Christian School.

Please join Alise and GUMW to experience and gain insight into the incredible role GUMC, and all of us as Christians and Memphians, play in Room In The Inn. Alise is truly "Blessed to Be a Blessing," as you will be after hearing her incredible journey with Room In The Inn.

Facilitated by Mary Groh / mgroh@germantownumc.org / 754-7216

In this 5-session study we will explore the main texts in all four Gospels and in Paul's writings that deal specifically with the last week of Jesus' life and with the resurrection. We will focus on the "main events" of Holy Week and explore different ways to view and understand what God is doing in these events. Cost for the study is $15 and childcare is available by advance reservation. Register at germantownumc.org or call Mary Groh.

2018 Faith Seeking Understanding

A Weekend with Dr. James Fleming, April 27 - 29

GROWING PAINS IN THE EARLY CHURCH

The early church was increasing in size and included diverse people from a variety of ethnic and cultural backgrounds. As a result problems arose. There was friction within the fellowship. It was a major miracle that the church held together.

Join us to hear Dr. James Fleming discuss the barriers to growth and unity in the New Testament Church; such as economic diversity, language, prejudice, pagan influences, and Scriptural interpretations. How men and women worked on these problems offers a blueprint for Christians today.

Dr. Fleming, who is one of the best-known teachers of Biblical archaeology, will bring his insights to GUMC with a series of lectures on April 27-29. He spent 37 years working in Israel and is now director of Biblical Resources and CEO of the Biblical History Center in Georgia, a museum of daily life in biblical times.

His visit will include a dinner on Friday evening as well as a presentation during the Sunday school hours on April 29. Be sure to join us – plan to be captivated! Look for more information soon!

Discovery Weekend 2018

February 16-18, 2018

Our spring retreat is right around the corner and we cannot wait to experience what the Lord will do in and through each of our youth and in and through each of our volunteers. Discovery Weekend is designed to empower our Senior High Youth to plan and lead a retreat that is meaningful, fun, and life giving. This weekend is designed for all of us to draw closer to Jesus.

One other great thing about Discovery is the way that the local church partners with the youth program to show their love and support of each teenager. During the weekend we will have over 100 church members volunteering to serve meals, stay overnight, decorate our space, and more!

We sure hope each youth and youth family will join us for a weekend of worship, games, small groups, lots of food, and more! We also hope that each church member will partner with us in prayer, service, and fellowship. Please contact Sue Hyland to volunteer or check out the church website for more details.

Discovery Weekend Youth Led Worship Service | Sunday, February 18 at 9:40

Room In The Inn From Jensen Lewis - GUMC Youth - Junior

During January I had the opportunity to serve our friends from the homeless community of Memphis at Room in the Inn. Friday and Saturday night were filled with seemingly unsolvable puzzles with James, discussions about Jurassic Park with Tony and Rikki, and talking about New York with Richard, all after a delicious dinner enjoyed together. These experiences were some that I will not soon forget, and I'm glad I was able to spend a couple of snowy evenings surrounded by wonderful people.

My experiences serving at Room in the Inn have been instrumental in shaping my view of Memphis, and also of service in my community. Friday was youth night, where specifically students from Element come and serve at Room in the Inn. It is especially exciting to serve alongside your friends and meet new friends as well. I have so enjoyed every opportunity I have received to talk to new people and learn about their lives and experiences. These are not everyday opportunities, and I am grateful for them.

SOZO Children's Choir From Josh Jacobs - GUMC Youth - Junior

A few weeks ago I had the joyful opportunity to watch the SozoChildren's Choir worship the Lord at our very own GUMC. On top of this, I was given the honor of serving and fellowshiping with the children afterward. But before I get into how deeply I was affected by my experience, a little background on the Sozo ministry is necessary. Sozo Children is an organization in Uganda that brings in and raises children of all ages that are either orphaned or suffer from abuse in their own homes. The children are given an education and are able to build relationships with each other and Jesus Christ. They can play sports and pursue their interests just like any child here. In essence, the Sozo Children can live normal and healthy lives because of this ministry. During part of the year, these children travel to the United States and go on a five month tour during which they worship with churches all across the country, one of which was GUMC. From the moment the service began last Wednesday until long after it ended, I had a sense of joy and peace that could have only come from the Holy Spirit. I smiled and laughed and felt pulled closer and closer to God as the children of the Sozo choir sang. It is rare and heartwarming to see such happy and genuine love in the world, but these Sons and Daughters of God, these Brothers and Sisters in Christ, created an infectious atmosphere of peace that led my heart and those of everyone in the sanctuary nearer to God. Following the service, and after serving the children a meal, I was able to get to know these children personally, and my joy grew more at the conversations we had. We talked about sports and games. I lost an arm wrestling match to one of my new friends, Benjamin, and was bested by another boy, Francis, in tic tac toe. We laughed from sheer joy and happiness. I began to feel the love of Christ connecting all of us in a new and deeper way and I knew that I had made some close friends, whom I hope to see again one day soon. Overall, the night was one of peace and joy and I am so grateful to the Lord for giving me the chance to be a part of it and to GUMC for hosting the Sozo Children's Choir. In the words of my friends at Sozo: Praise God, Church!
