As we journey through March, many of us find ourselves deep in the season of Lent—a time the Church has long set aside for reflection, honesty, and renewal. At the heart of this season stands a word we often misunderstand: repentance.

For some, repentance sounds like shame, guilt, or spiritual scolding. But Scripture paints a very different picture. Repentance is not God wagging a finger at us; it is God extending a hand. It is less about condemnation and more about invitation—an invitation to turn from what drains life and turn toward the One who restores it.

The biblical word for repentance, metanoia, means “a change of mind,” a reorientation of the heart. It’s the moment in Luke 15 when the prodigal son realizes that life with the father is better than life on his own. It’s the request David prays in Psalm 51, “Create in me a clean heart, O God,” not because he is crushed beyond repair, but because he trusts that God can make him new. Consider these and other scripture passages:

Scriptures on the Heart of Repentance

- Joel 2:12-13 — “Return to Me with all your heart...for He is gracious and compassionate.”
- Isaiah 55:6-7 — God’s invitation to return and receive abundant pardon.

Scriptures on God’s Kindness and Mercy

- Romans 2:4 — God’s kindness leads us to repentance.
- 1 John 1:8-9 — Confession and God’s faithfulness to forgive.
- Micah 7:18-19 — God delights in showing mercy and casting our sins into the depths of the sea.

Scriptures on Turning Back to God

- Acts 3:19-20 — “Repent...that times of refreshing may come from the Lord.”
- 2 Chronicles 7:14 — God’s promise to heal when His people humble themselves.
- Hosea 6:1-3 — A call to return to the Lord who restores.

Scriptures on Transformation and New Life

- Ezekiel 36:25-27 — A new heart and a new spirit.
- Romans 12:1-2 — Renewal of the mind.
- 2 Corinthians 7:9-10 — Godly sorrow leading to salvation.

Gospel Passages on Repentance

- Mark 1:14-15 — Jesus’ opening message: “Repent and believe the good news.”
- Luke 18:9-14 — The tax collector’s humble prayer.

...Continued

This March, I invite you to think on these scriptures and embrace repentance, not as a burden, but as a blessing. Let it be a time to lay down what is heavy, to release what is broken, and to receive what is healing. Let it be a season of returning—returning to prayer, to Scripture, to community, to the quiet voice of the Spirit who calls us home again and again.

May this month be marked not by sorrow, but by renewal. Not by fear, but by freedom. Not by looking back in regret, but by looking forward in hope. For the God who calls us to repent is the same God who delights to restore.

Owings Life Enrichment Center

Rev. Mimi White

During this season of Lent, at Prism, we are exploring John: The Gospel of Light and Life, with some help from Adam Hamilton's book of the same title. The Gospel of John is the most mystical of all the four Gospels, telling us who Jesus is, using metaphors and imagery, such as "the light of the world."

As we approach Easter, we'll be focusing our attention on modern day examples of light and life in the world and looking for where the Holy Spirit is nudging us to become that light and life for those in need.

Right now, all of us are living through challenging times, but, even though they are challenging, they are filled with opportunities for us to do better and to become Jesus' hands and feet to a hurting world.

We will follow Jesus through the Gospel of John, paying close attention to what He told us to do and say, so that we, too, can encourage and inspire others to have the kind of faith that brings hope in distressing times and light that dispels the darkness.

Join us on Sunday mornings, in the OLEC, at 10:30, and invite all your FRANS (Friends, Relatives, Associates, Neighbors, and Strangers) to come with you, so we can be inspired and encouraged together by Jesus' teachings and incredible music from Prism Riot. We'll have the coffee and snacks ready!

Rev. Dr. Scott Alford
Executive Minister

Each year, on St. Patrick's Day, we celebrate more than shamrocks and green attire. We remember a life rooted in deep faith, courage, and selfless generosity. St. Patrick's story is one of gratitude to God and a commitment to share God's love with others, even in the face of hardship.

St. Patrick was born around 386 in Britain. He was captured by Irish pirates at the age of 16 and enslaved for six years. During this time, he developed a deep devotion to Christianity, which shaped his future mission. He eventually escaped back to Britain, where he studied under the missionary, Saint Germanus, and was ordained as a bishop.

St. Patrick continuously preached forgiveness and reconciliation. Even after his enslavement as a young man in Ireland, he returned as a missionary to the land of his captors, baptizing thousands and ordaining hundreds of priests. He also started schools and promoted education. St. Patrick founded many monasteries and schools and worked hard to educate those who were disadvantaged or marginalized. One lesson we still recall today is his use of a clover (shamrock) to illustrate the Holy Trinity.

St. Patrick understood that everything he had—his faith, his strength, his purpose—was a gift from God. In response to that gift, he gave freely of himself. He dedicated his life to serving the Church and spreading the Gospel, trusting that God would provide along the way. His generosity was not just about material offerings, but about offering his whole heart in service to God's mission.

This month, as we reflect on his legacy, St. Patrick's Day invites us to consider our own response to God's blessings. How are we called to give back? How can our generosity strengthen our church and support the ministries that serve our community and beyond?

When we give to the church through our time, talents, and financial gifts, we help ensure that God's work continues to prosper. Our generosity supports worship, outreach, education, and care for those in need. Like St. Patrick, we may not always see the full impact of our giving, but we can trust that God multiplies every faithful offering.

Let us celebrate St. Patrick's Day with joyful hearts and grateful spirits. Let us honor St. Patrick's example by renewing our commitment to service and generosity, trusting that, when we give ourselves freely, God's grace flows even more abundantly through our church and into the world.

Generosity

“For it is in giving that we receive.”

St. Francis of Assisi

Each month we recognize a volunteer or volunteers who make an impact by selflessly sharing their time and talents for the betterment of our church and community.

Jim and Betty Allbright - Serving at the Lord's Table

Jim and Betty Allbright first joined GUMC in the fall of 1983. After business moves to Atlanta and Philadelphia, they returned to Memphis and GUMC in 1990, where their roots in worship and service continued to grow.

Today, Jim and Betty serve as our Communion Stewards, a meaningful role at the heart of our worship life. They prepare the elements and serve as members of the Worship Committee. This is not their first time in this role. After first assisting with Communion setup, they later became Communion Stewards for several years, passing the responsibility on, and then faithfully stepping back into the role, following COVID, when the need arose. In addition, they have also served as Greeters and Ushers, welcoming and assisting worshipers each week.

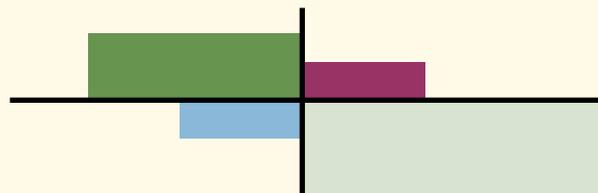

Over the years, Jim and Betty have been involved in numerous volunteer and mission activities inside and outside the church. They volunteered extensively with Habitat for Humanity, with Jim also serving a six-year term on the Habitat Board of Directors. Both were also actively involved in Scouting for many years.

Their service to the wider church has also included four years as Lay Delegates to the Tennessee-Western Kentucky Annual Conference, a role they recently stepped away from so another couple could have the opportunity to serve. According to Jim and Betty, "The worship services are outstanding and will bring blessings into your life."

Betty stays active through women's circles and has helped with the Spring and Fall Children's Consignment Sales and the Christmas Cookie Shoppe. Jim serves on the safety team. Together, they regularly assist with the weekend meals mission and the Cordova food mission.

When asked about what service means to them, they shared: "Serving God through volunteering brings joy into our lives. It provides comfort and stability from the stresses of this crazy society. Serving God helps polish our souls, so they reflect the light of Jesus to others."

We are grateful to Jim and Betty Allbright for the many ways they continue to bless our church family through their service.

Work Begins at the Trinity Center in McVay Gardens

Work at the Trinity Center in McVay Gardens is underway! The project will make this space even more welcoming and functional for everyone. Improvements include the installation of ADA-compliant walkways, allowing all visitors to comfortably and safely access the grounds. A new concrete deck will be added at the amphitheater, creating a more durable and user-friendly area for wheelchairs and strollers. Updated lighting and improvements to the parking area will enhance both visibility and accessibility. These upgrades will ensure that people of all ages and abilities will be able to gather, worship, and enjoy God's creation.

The Trustees will also soon work to improve the lighting in the sanctuary, converting all lights to LED to save energy and removing the chandeliers to eliminate shadows and reduce maintenance costs. This project will enhance our worship, offer flexibility in lighting for special services, and keep our lovely sanctuary welcoming for generations to come.

Music Ministry

Rev. Todd Wilson, Minister of Music | twilson@germantownumc.org | 901-754-7216

Holy Week is a special sequence of events that helps mark our Christian journey. Each year, we recognize the death and resurrection of Christ through the retelling of the story. Many traditions skip this important part of the chronicle. I am grateful that we understand you cannot have resurrection without the death of Christ.

We will mark this truth with relatively new music from composer Michael John Trotta: The Seven Last Words of Christ, written in 2016.

On the night of Palm Sunday, while the palms are still in the sanctuary and fresh in our memories, we will tell—through music—the story we are about to experience during Holy Week. A sermon series on each Sunday in Lent will explore these seven last words as well.

I pray you will make it a point to join the GUMC Chancel Choir and guest instrumentalists as we share this work on Sunday, March 29, at 6:30 pm. Click here for a sneak peak of each movement, or scan the QR code. It will certainly be time well spent if you choose to give a listen.

IS IT I, LORD?

Living Last Supper & Communion Service

Holy Thursday, April 2
7 pm in the Sanctuary

The Testimony Youth Choir and youth participants will present “Is It I, Lord?” on Thursday, April 2, at 7 pm, in the sanctuary. This Living Last Supper worship experience brings Holy Thursday to life through artistically scripted monologues, voiced from the perspective of each disciple, as they respond to Jesus’ words that one of them would betray Him. Each disciple ponders who would do such a thing, and asks, “Is it I, Lord?”

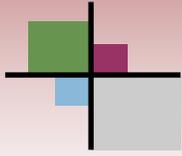

Through reflective storytelling, choral anthems, and congregational singing, the service invites us to step inside the Upper Room and examine our own hearts. As the worship transitions into the celebration of Holy Communion, you will be invited to receive the elements from the disciples and from Jesus, deepening the connection between Scripture, sacrament, and story.

The evening will conclude with the solemn stripping of the sanctuary and a time of quiet meditation, guiding us prayerfully toward Good Friday.

We invite you to join us for this meaningful and moving service and to support our youth as they lead us in worship during this sacred week.

Spring Prayer Vigil

A prayer vigil is an act of public witness. It offers our community a space to connect with God, so that God’s vision can be carried out through us. As United Methodists, we understand prayer vigils to be grounded in the power of the Holy Spirit, to change people’s hearts and minds, and to strengthen us in our work and witness (UMC Church & Society.) Participating in prayer vigils can stretch us in our prayer life.

Commit to pray on Thursday, March 26, by registering online. What a blessing it would be for the entire church to pray together. Registering says you are committing to pray on March 26 anytime between 8:00 am and 4:00 pm. The chapel will be open for prayer; however, if you can’t come to the chapel, pray at home.

What should you pray? Here are few scriptures to get you started.

Prayers of Worship

Psalm 8:3-4

When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, [4] what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him?

Prayers of Thanksgiving

Psalm 107:1

Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for he is good, for his steadfast love endures forever!

Prayers of Confession

1 John 1:9

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.

Prayers of Intercession

Hebrews 7:25

Consequently, he is able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, since he always lives to make intercession for them.

Praying together strengthens our relationship with God and gives us an opportunity to share our burdens. When we pray together, we grow and become more comfortable worshipping together.

Looking forward to seeing you! Contact Yolanda Toney at ytoney@germantownumc.org if you have any questions.

Don’t forget to register for “Steady Ground,” Sunday, March 22, in the fellowship hall, immediately following the worship service. Please see the flyer on page 12 for more information.

Andy Pouncey Will Talk about Frances Wright and Her Utopian Dream at the April Brown Bag Lunch!

In 1825, Scottish-born Frances Wright, with advice from General LaFayette, and former Presidents Jefferson, Madison, and Monroe and future president Jackson, purchased 1,940 acres of land in Shelby County to establish a colony called Nashoba, an experiment to end slavery. West Tennessee was regarded as the best place for emancipation, because public feeling was judged more favorable to abolition than other Southern locations. Her plan offered hope for slaves preparing to become free, self-supporting citizens, and it also sought to save the South from the sudden loss of investment dollars. Andy Pouncey will tell us about Ms. Wright's background and ideals, as well as her struggles to create an egalitarian, interracial community at the April Brown Bag Lunch Series, an adventure in learning sponsored by the Older Adult Council.

XYZs Travel to Mississippi River Museum in April!

Come with us to learn about the history of the Mississippi Delta and get up close and personal with America's Greatest River. We are going to the Mississippi River Museum inside the Tunica RiverPark. This museum showcases the legend and life of the river and its history through its interpretive exhibits, outdoor overlook, four large aquariums that show us what lives in the lowlands of the Mississippi, and an Eco park that includes meander gardens and an outdoor river walk. For lunch we will drive into the heart of Tunica to eat at the Blue and White Restaurant, which has been serving down-home country cooking since 1924. Join us for a leisurely day along the river.

Our Handy Helpers are waiting for your call...

The Handy Helpers Ministry Team, sponsored by the Older Adult Council, lends a “helping hand” to older adults in our church who need assistance with small repair and maintenance jobs around the house.

WHAT TYPE OF JOBS DO HANDY HELPERS DO?

- Light maintenance and repairs, including small carpentry jobs, such as malfunctioning doors, locks, or windows.
- Minor electrical work, such as replacing light switches and light bulbs.
- Replacing smoke alarm batteries.
- Minor plumbing work, such as working on “running” toilets or leaky faucets.
- Other miscellaneous jobs are considered on an individual basis.

If you are planning a larger job for your house (repainting, wood replacement, remodeling) and would like a second opinion of what really needs to be done, call Handy Helpers, and they will send someone out to take a look and talk to you about it.

Handy Helpers do not work on large or small appliances, roofs, home decorating, or on jobs requiring tall ladders.

WHAT DOES THIS SERVICE COST?

The Handy Helpers service charges only for parts and materials used in the repair. There is NO charge for labor.

TO QUALIFY FOR THE HANDY HELPERS SERVICE:

You must be a member of Germantown United Methodist Church, have homeowners liability insurance, and be over 60 years of age.

Alturas Ministries - Costa Rica

Alturas now has a total of 11 high school graduates!

60 Alturas kids were given Christmas presents!

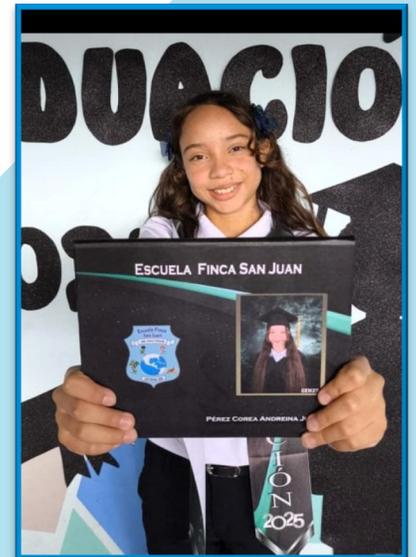

Alturas Ministries is so excited to report that, thanks to God and GUMC, in December, we had three more students graduate from high school, for a total of 11 high school graduates!

One of our graduates was in the top 10 percent of his class. All three recent graduates passed the five different national standardized tests for high school, which are incredibly difficult! Failure on one of these tests means not passing the grade and having one chance to take all five tests again in February, or repeat the whole year.

We also had six kids pass sixth grade, having also passed the five national standardized tests for sixth grade. One of these sixth graders had the highest grade in her class and the highest grade on the five nationalized standardized tests in her school!

Thanks to GUMC members like you, children have hope, and lives are forever changed!

Share the good news with your friends to help spread the good news of what God is doing! To God be the glory always!

Please like Alturas Ministries on Facebook to stay up to date with Alturas!

Room in the Inn - When One Night Became Six

When ice and snow rolled in at the end of January, most of us hunkered down at home and waited it out. At The Cottage, at GUMC, the lights stayed on.

What is normally a one-night hosting commitment for Room in the Inn quietly turned into nearly a week of around-the-clock hospitality. From Friday night, January 23, through Thursday morning, January 29, The Cottage became home for 14 guests—nine children, ranging in age from just five days old to 16 years, and five adult women.

Because the roads were unsafe and shelters were limited, moving from place to place simply wasn't an option. So volunteers from Germantown United Methodist, Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Covenant Presbyterian, St. George's Episcopal, Emmanuel, and Second Presbyterian stepped in, together, and made it work. The volunteers included families with young children, teens, individuals, couples, and friends of various ages.

Girl Scouts Troop 10785 kicked off the six-day hosting period.

RITI guests enjoying crafts

High school Girl Scouts helped kick things off. Volunteers rotated through shifts, cooked meals, made grocery runs when stores opened, set up beds, folded laundry, and brought extra toys, art supplies, and Play-Doh to keep little hands busy. Meals were shared around tables, and stories were swapped. By day three, strangers had become familiar faces. What could have felt like an emergency, instead, felt like a community. That spirit is the heart of Room in the Inn (RITI).

Throughout the colder months, our church partners with others across the city to offer guests a safe, warm place to sleep for the night. Volunteers prepare beds with clean sheets, serve dinner, sit and eat with guests, provide showers and laundry, and send everyone off in the morning with breakfast and a snack. It's simple hospitality, but it makes a profound difference. This winter storm reminded us that sometimes "one night" turns into something more, and that more hands truly make light work.

Volunteers came after guests left to reset the Cottage.

If you'd like to be part of Room in the Inn, there are many ways to help, from driving the van or hosting a shift to providing meals or supplies. Volunteers of all ages and backgrounds are welcome! To learn more, reach out to Julia Underwood at juliamunderwood@yahoo.com.

There's always room for one more at the table.

10 WARNING SIGNS OF ALZHEIMER'S

If you notice any of these signs, take action.

1. MEMORY LOSS THAT DISRUPTS DAILY LIFE One of the most common signs of Alzheimer's disease, especially in the early stages, is forgetting learned information. Others include forgetting important dates or events, asking the same question over and over again, or increasingly needing to rely on memory aids (e.g. reminder notes or electronic devices) or family members for things the person used to handle on their own.

2. CHALLENGES IN PLANNING OR SOLVING PROBLEMS Some people living with dementia may experience changes in their ability to develop and follow a plan or work with numbers. They may have trouble following a familiar recipe or keeping track of monthly bills (this was the first sign that my late wife was experiencing memory loss.) They may have difficulty concentrating and take much longer to do things than they did before.

3. DIFFICULTY COMPLETING FAMILIAR TASKS People living with Alzheimer's disease often find it hard to complete routine tasks. Sometimes, they may have trouble driving to a familiar location, organizing a grocery list, or remembering the rules of a favorite game.

4. CONFUSION WITH TIME OR PLACE People living with Alzheimer's can lose track of dates, seasons, and the passage of time. They may have trouble understanding something, if it is not happening immediately. Sometimes, they may forget where they are or how they got there.

5. TROUBLE UNDERSTANDING VISUAL IMAGE AND SPATIAL RELATIONSHIPS For some people, vision problems are a sign of Alzheimer's. They may also have problems judging distance and determining color or contrast, causing issues with driving.

6. NEW PROBLEMS WITH WORDS IN SPEAKING OR WRITING People living with Alzheimer's may have trouble following or joining a conversation. They may stop in the middle of a conversation and have no idea how to continue, or repeat themselves. They may struggle with vocabulary, have trouble naming a familiar object, or use the wrong name.

7. MISPLACING THINGS AND LOSING THE ABILITY TO RETRACE STEPS A person living with Alzheimer's may put things in unusual places. They may lose things and be unable to go back over their steps to find them again. He or she may accuse others of stealing, especially as the disease progresses.

8. DECREASED OR POOR JUDGMENT Individuals may experience changes in judgment or decision-making. For example, they may use poor judgement when dealing with money, or pay less attention to grooming or keeping themselves clean.

9. WITHDRAWAL FROM WORK OR SOCIAL ACTIVITIES A person living with Alzheimer's often withdraws from hobbies, social media, or other engagements. They may have trouble keeping up with a favorite team.

10. CHANGES IN MOOD AND PERSONALITY Individuals living with Alzheimer's may also experience mood and personality changes. They may be easily upset at home, at work, with friends, or when out of their comfort zone.

If you or a loved one has displayed any of these signs, talk to someone you trust and/or see a doctor (neurologist), who can work up a full medical evaluation to determine if it's Alzheimer's or something else. Early diagnosis gives you a chance to plan for a future, access support services, and explore medication that may address some symptoms for a time.

I have personal experience dealing with a loved one with Alzheimer's, and if you have any questions, please feel free to contact me, Richard Mattox, Elder Care Coordinator, at 901-754-7216 or 901-758-6508.

Germantown United Methodist Preschool

Welcome Spring! March is a season of discovery at GUMP, as our students joyfully “March into Spring!” Classrooms are filled with hands-on lessons about plants, insects, caterpillars, butterflies, birds, and all the amazing changes that come with the new season.

We begin the month by honoring our incredible teachers—the heartbeat of GUMP. To show our appreciation, the preschool provides a delicious catered lunch, and families surprise teachers with heartfelt cards, small gifts, and treats. Our teachers pour tremendous time, energy, and love into their classrooms, and we are grateful for them. We love our GUMP teachers!

March ushers in our second round of parent-teacher conferences. Teachers will enjoy meeting with families to share each child’s growth, development, and learning throughout the year. These conversations are a wonderful opportunity for parents to see just how much their children have accomplished during their time at GUMP.

This month is full of excitement and special moments, such as :

- St. Patrick’s Day fun, with some classrooms receiving magical visits from sneaky little leprechauns.
- A spring photo session with Shannon Lenore, who returns to capture beautiful seasonal portraits.
- Spring Break, enjoyed by both our families and our hard-working teachers—a chance to rest, recharge, and enjoy the early signs of spring.

Enrollment Update We are thrilled to share that enrollment continues to grow for the 2026–2027 school year. GUMP is well known for preparing students for kindergarten through a multisensory, play-based approach and nationally recognized curriculums, such as All About Preschool and Handwriting Without Tears.

We are now in open enrollment and actively accepting applications for the upcoming school year. We look forward to welcoming new families and continuing to support every child’s growth, confidence, and love of learning.

Please call 901-753-3109, if you are interested. We would love to share information about the wonderful things happening at GUMP.
